

About State Line Auto Auction:

Since 1981, State Line Auto Auction has operated and developed into one of the premiere wholesale auto auctions in the country. Since we're a "dealer only" auto auction, we may not be as well known in collector car circles as some of the "big name" auctions, but we're for real!

With a weekly consignment auction of over 1,100 vehicles, and a biweekly "factory" auction for General Motors, State Line offered over 67,000 vehicles for sale in 2008, and SOLD over 41,000!

When it comes to collector, antique and special interest cars, we love them, also! We have produced two "antique and classic" sales every year for over twenty years, but of course these are events that are restricted only to our dealer customers ... not open to the public.

Now, however, you can enjoy State Line's expertise by participating in our first ever "State Line Vintage Auto Auction at The Glen" on September 12th.
